内容概要

Among the most popular works in the orchestral repertoire, the Slavonic Dances exuberantly express many of the most distinctive qualities of Dvřfik's genius, among them his wealth of pure, fresh musical ideas; his ardent love for his land and people; and his inspired mastery of instrumentation. Vibrant with characteristic melody and rhythm, the Dances celebrate Czech dance forms, Czech humor and folk merriment as well as the supreme individuality of Dvřfik's musical temperament. This sturdy, inexpensive volume presents the full orchestral score of the Slavonic Dances, Op. 46, in the authoritative edition originally published by the Antonin Dvorak Society of Prague.
