前言

China, an age-old nation with a history of nearly five thousand years, has a time-honored splendid civilization like many other nations in the world. Do you want to open the gate to the treasures of such a giant nation with a long-standing history and civilization? Do you desire a magic wand to lead you easily through the long historical corridor of this great Eastern nation and see the brilliance of its history? Then, please open this book. It is a magic wand that helps you understand Chinese history with ease, as well as a window providing a convenient view on China. This book tells nearly 100 well-known stories from remote antiquity to the Revolution of 1911 in time sequence and takes key historical events and figures as the mainline. In compiling the book, we have striven to present the social changes, wars and battles, science and technology, and culture and art during China's five thousand years of history in a series of accurate, vivid and concise stories. The book is a historical documentary with varied extraordinary splendor rather than a heavy, dull academic work. The book vividly portrays a good number of historical figures, including feudal emperors of supremacy, wise and thundering generals and commanders, upright, loyal and virtuous people, merciless officials and treacherous ministers, righteous, dauntless and unbending national heroes and people of exceptional ability, and scrupulous and practical-minded scientists and thinkers of great learning and wisdom. In the process of editing, we pursued faithfulness to historical facts, yet we avoided dry historical data. We placed emphasis on the readability of the text and illustrated the text with quite a few exquisite and vivid paintings, composing an interesting book excellent both in pictures and language. We hope that the book could lead you to appreciate the splendor of Chinese history and bring you the joy of reading at the same time.
