J: Thank you for all your help. S: Don't mention it. J: Here is a box for you, and don't open it before my plane takes off. S: Thank you and I'll miss you !

J: Me, too. Passage Snoopy, Garfield, Kitty and Mickey are leaving because Uncle Marting will take them back to the Mars. They really made many good friends on the Earth. They couldn't live with their friends any more, but they would like to come to see them very often in the future. They will never forget their teachers and friends. At leaving, Snoopy says, "If you like to raise animals, tell us. We can send you the photos about animals on Mars." Garfield says, "When you're in need of help, please give us a call. We'll be happy to help you." Kitty says, "Today is a sunny Monday. I wish you'd have a good future." Mickey asks, "What's the key to open the gate of happy life ?

" They answer together, "Friendship !
