章节摘录

版权页：插图：Robert De Vincenzo, the great Argentine golfer, once won a game and, after receiving the check and smiling for the cameras, he went to the clubhouse and prepared to leave. He walked alone to his car in the parking lot and was stopped by a young woman. She congratulated him on his victory and then told him that her child was seriously ill. She did not know how she could pay the doctor's bills and hospital expenses. De Vincenzo was touched by her story. He took out a pen and signed his name to the winning check for payment to the woman. "Make some good days for the baby," he said as he handed the check to her. Several days later, he was having lunch in a country club when a PGA (Professional Golf Association) official came to his table. "Some of the boys in the parking lot last week told me you met a young woman there after you won that tournament. De Vincenzo nodded. "Well," said the official, " ! have bad news for you. She's a cheat. She has no sick baby, She's not even married. You are cheated, my friend." "You mean there is no baby who is dying ?" asked De Vincenzo. "That's right," said the official. "That's the best news I've heard all week," De Vincenzo said with a relaxed smile. The moral of this story is two-fold. Firstly, even when you make a costly mistake, it's best to look at the bright side of life. Secondly, this story perfectly illustrates how warm-hearted and positive people who play golf can be !
