内容概要

《白牙(插图本)》内容简介：作者以寒冷的加拿大北极地区为背景，采用拟人化的手法，讲述了一只诞生于荒野名叫白牙的狼，从几个月大开始在与人类的交往过程中，历经种种磨难和曲折，在主人的感化下，最终走出荒野，过上驯养生活的故事。

作者以自然主义的写作风格阐述了遗传和环境因素对动物生存的双重影响，在揭示野性的力量、残酷的生存法则的同时，最终肯定和礼赞的仍然是人性的力量。

章节摘录

Im thinking youre down in the mouth some , Henry said. Henry... He sucked meditatively at his pipe for some time before he went on. Henry , I was a-thinkin what a blame sightluckier he is than you an mell ever be. He indicated the third person by a downward thrust of the thumb to the box on which they sat. You an me , Henry , when we die , well be lucky if we get enough stones over our carcasses to keep the dogs off of us. But we aint got people an money an all the rest , like him , Henry rejoined. Long-distance funerals is somethin you an me cant exactly afford. What gets me , Henry , is what a chap like this , thats a lord or something in his own country , and thats never had to bother about grub nor blankets——why he comes a-buttin round the God-forsaken ends of the earth——thats what I cant exactly see. He might have lived to a ripe old age if hed stayed to home , HemT agreed. Bill opened his mouth to speak , but changed his mind. Instead , he pointed toward the wall of darkness that pressed about them from every side. There was no suggestion of form in the utter blackness; only could be seen a pair of eyes gleaming like live coals. Henry indicated with his head a second pair , and a third. A circle of the gleaming eyes had drawn about their camp. Now and again a pair of eyes moved , or disappeared to appear again a moment later.

媒体关注与评论

与其说是在写动物，不如说是在写人。
因为动物的世界和人的社会一样残酷。
但是有些时候，动物的温情比人类的温情来得更纯粹、更动人，这就是阅读动物小说的乐趣。
