<<孔子>>

内容概要

Through a systematic "gongfu" reading of Confucius , this book shows how Confucius ideas are different from dogmatized or overly intellectualistic understandings of Confucianism and how the Master s insights can be a rich resource for re-enchanting the world and the contemporary life.

作者简介

Peimin Ni (倪培民), Professor of Philosophy at Grand Valley State University, USA, was a graduate of Fudan University in China and got this Ph.D. from the University of Connecticut. He is the President of the Society of Asian and Comparative Philosophy, former President of the Association of Chinese Philosophers in America, and was a keynote speaker at "World Public Forum" in Europe. He is the author of numerous books and articles, including On Confucius (Wadsworth, 2002) and a chapter on "Confucius" in Oxford Handbook of World Philosophy.

媒体关注与评论

The book is a thoughtful and inspiring presentation of Confucian-ism as arguably the longest and most influential ethical and spiri-tual traditions inhuman history. It is highly readable with many insightful observations.

——Tu Weiming (杜维明) Peking University and Harvard University In this short book Peimin Ni revives Confucius as the living and enduring spirit of Chinese culture. ——Roger T. Ames The University of Hawaii Peimin Ni has provided a portrait of Confucius that makes him more complex and also more human than he generally is presented asbeing. ——Joel Kupperman The University of Connecticut
