章节摘录

版权页： Cloze 5 (2010安徽) Most people give little thought to the pens they write with, especially since the printers in modern homes and offices mean that very _____ things are handwritten. All too often, people buy a pen based only on _____, and wonder why they are not satisfied _____ they begin to use it. However, buying a pen that you'll enjoy is not _____ if you keep the following in mind. First of all, a pen should fit comfortably in your hand and be _____ to use. The thickness of the pen is the most important characteristic (特征) _____ comfort. Having a small hand and thick fingers, you may be comfortable with a thin pen. If you have a _____ hand and thicker fingers, you may _____ a fatter pen. The length of a pen can _____ influence comfort. A pen that is too _____ can easily feel top-heavy and unstable. Then, the writing point of the pen should _____ the ink to flow evenly (均匀地) while the pen remains in touch with the paper. _____ will make it possible for you to create a _____ line of writing. The point should also be sensitive enough to _____ ink from running when the pen is lifted. A point that does not block the _____ may leave drops of ink, _____ you pick the pen up and put it down again. _____, the pen should make a thick, dark line. Fine-line pens may _____ bad handwriting, but fine, delicate lines do not command _____ next to printed text, as, _____, a signature on a printed letter. A broader line, on the other hand, gives an impression of confidence and authority (权威). 1. A. many B. few C. pleasant D. important 2. A. looks B. reason C. value D. advantages 3.
