章节摘录

Reverend Braxton , family , friends , admirers , and this amazing choir : I feel it an honor to be here to come and say a final goodbye. I grew up in the South , and Rosa Parks was a hero to me long before I recognized and understood the power and impact that her life embodied. I remember my father telling me about this colored woman who had refused to give up her seat. And in my child ' s mind , I thought , “ She must be really big. “ I thought she must be at least a hundred feet tall. I imagined her being strong and determined and carrying a shield (a large flat piece of metal) to hold back the white folks. And then I grew up and had the esteemed honor of meeting her. And wasn ' t that a surprise ?

Here was this petite almost delicate lady who was the personification of grace and goodness. And ! I thanked her then. I said “ thank you ” , for myself and for every colored girl , every colored boy , who didn ' t have heroes who were celebrated. I thanked her then. And after our first meeting I realized that God uses good people to do great things. And I ' m here today to say a final thank you , Sister Rosa , for being a great woman who used your life to serve , to serve us all. That day that you refused to give up your seat on the bus , you , Sister Rosa , changed the trajectory of my life and lives of so many other people in the world. I would not be standing here today nor standing where I stand every day had she not chosen to sit down. I know that. I know that. I know that , and I honor that. Had she not chosen to say , we shall not , we shall not be moved. So I thank you again , Sister Rosa , for not only confronting the one white man whose seat you took , not only confronting the bus driver , not only for confronting the law , but for confronting history , a history that for 400 years said that you were not even worthy of a glance , certainly no consideration. I thank you for not moving.
