章节摘录

Gettysburg Oration Edward Everett 19 November 1863 STANDING beneath this serene sky , overlooking these broad fields now reposing from the labors of the waning year , the mighty Alleghenies dimly towering before us , the graves of our brethren beneath our feet , it is with hesitation that I raise my poor voice to break the eloquent silence of God and Nature. But the duty to which you have called me must be performed; -grant me , I pray you , your indulgence and your sympathy. It was appointed by law in Athens , that the obsequies of the citizens who fell in battle should be performed at the public expense , and in the most honorable manner. Their bones were carefully gathered up from the funeral pyre where their bodies were consumed , and brought home to the city. There , for three days before the interment , they lay in state , beneath tents of honor , to receive the votive offerings of friends and relatives , -- flowers , weapons , precious ornaments , painted vases (wonders of art , which after two thousand years adorn the museums of modern Europe) , the last tributes of surviving affection. Ten coffins of funereal cypress received the honorable deposit , one for each of the tribes of the city , and an eleventh in memory of the unrecognized , but not therefore unhonored , dead , and of those whose remains could not be recovered. On the fourth day the mournful procession was formed : mothers , wives , sisters , daughters , led the way , and to them it was permitted by the simplicity of ancient manners to utter aloud their lamentations for the beloved and the lost; the male relatives and friends of the deceased followed; citizens and strangers closed the train. Thus marshalled , they moved to the place of interment in that famous Ceramicus , the most beautiful suburb of Athens , which had been adorned by Cimon , the son of Miltiades , with walks and fountains and columns , - whose groves were filled with altars , shrines , and temples , - whose gardens were kept forever green by the streams from the neighboring hills , and shaded with the trees sacred to Minerva and coeval with the foundation of the city , - whose circuit enclosed "the olive grove of Academe , Platos retirement , where the Attic bird Trilled his thick-warbled note the summer long , " - whose pathways gleamed with the monuments of the illustrious dead , the work of the most consummate masters that ever gave life to marble. There , beneath the overarching plane-trees , upon a lofty stage erected for the purpose , it was ordained that a funeral oration should be pronounced by some citizen of Athens , in the presence of the assembled multitude.
