章节摘录

Ge was once a very talented mechanic in a factory, but the accident changed his entire life. It was extremely hard for him to know that he would spend the rest of his life in a wheelchair though his medical expenses were covered by insurance. He was only 45 and the financial income of the family mainly depended on him. He felt more pressure on him and became depressed and bad-tempered. The atmosphere at home grew more and more tense. Ge's wife quit her job to look after her disabled husband. She was very much worried and felt helpless in comforting her depressed and irascible husband, until one day when she wheeled her husband into the Temple of Heaven near their home.
