章节摘录

Voiceover : It looks tonight like he might be the comeback kid. In recent months he's been seen by many as a slack-jawed, toffee-nosed, public school PR guy. Well you can say what you like about David Cameron, but when everyone has told you this must be the speech of your life, how much bottle does it take to walk onto the stage with no script and no autocue. David Cameron: I've just got a few notes so it might be a bit messy; but it will be me.

Voieeover: His speech was too long, it sacked a bit in the middle, but it was earnest, well thought through and personal. David Cameron: When I think of the NHS, I think of the people in it. I think of the care worker who turns up at our home three nights a week to look after my son and cares for him as if he was her own son. I think about the neurologist who was just desperate to give us a better quality of life and he wouldn't stop until he found the answer. He got us back into hospital day after day, week after week.
